Description of Charge

From St. George, November 12, 1896.

No. 118.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT.
New Delhi, the 26th November 1959.

No. 2442.—With reference to Madras No. 169-G, dated the 26th May 1959, Dr. L. Sivas. Economy Vice-Chancellor for Tamil at Madurai, requested change of his office on the 2nd November 1959.

For all information regarding admission to the Competitive examination for the entry to various wings of the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun and the Royal Indian Navy.

Fort St. George, December 2, 1939.

No. 118

A competitive examination for entry to (1) the "Technical Arms" wing, and (2) the "Cavalry and Infantry" wing of the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, is the first beginning on or about 25th August 1940, and the Royal Indian Navy will be held in Dehra on Wednesday, the 27th March 1940 and subsequent days. The examination will be conducted by the Federal Public Service Commission. At this examination Indian vacancies will be offered, for entry to the Indian Military Academy. Of these it is anticipated that from six to eight vacancies will be offered for entry into the "Technical Arms" wing and the rest for the "Cavalry and Infantry" wing.

2. As a war-time measure, it has been decided that cadets, who enter either wing of the Indian Military Academy by reason of their success at the or at subsequent examinations during the war, will, on satisfactory completion of the course, be granted emergency commissions in the Majesty's Indian Land Forces. As no definite guarantee can be given to parents or guardians that these emergency commissions will be confirmed as permanent commissions after the war, the Government of India have decided that, so long as will be charged at the Indian Military Academy for cadets selected for emergency commissions and all cadets at that institution will be entitled to the commissions now granted to Army cadets only, i.e., they will receive pay at the rate of Rs. 60 per mensem while undergoing training, and in addition all the concessions regarding discharge, travelling allowance, medical attention, etc., which are accorded to "Regulars" entering commissions in the Indian Military Academy.

3. The application for admission to the examination should be submitted through the Collector of the district to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras. In the case of a candidate from Coorg, the application should be submitted to the Chief Commissioner of Coorg and in the case of a candidate from a State in India, through the Darbar to the Political Officer concerned. No candidate will be admitted to the examination from whom the Collector or the Political Officer concerned has not received on or before the 6th January 1940, an application in the prescribed form accompanied by the necessary documents.

4. Copies of the syllabus and rules, etc., and of the form of application for admission to the examination can be obtained on application to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public (Political) Department, Fort St. George, Madras.
